

RECORDING NEWS

Reviews editor Rebecca Franks on what's coming up on CD and DVD, and in the recording studio

COMPLETELY SCHUBERT

There's plenty for conductor Marc Minkowski and his Les Musiciens du Louvre to celebrate at present, as the period instrument ensemble prepares for its 30th anniversary concerts this autumn. And what better way to mark such a notable occasion than to release the complete Schubert Symphonies? Recorded live at the Wiener Konzerthaus, the Symphonies will be released on the Naïve label this September. Given the excellence of their recent Berlioz disc, a BBC Music Magazine orchestral choice, we'll be keeping a keen ear out for these latest treats.

